UCPM – Preparedness and Prevention

Christian AAGAARD
Unit for Prevention and Disaster Risk Management, DG ECHO

UCPM Prevention and Preparedness funding

Investing in prevention and preparedness

- It is essential in order to adapt to the current and future reality (e.g. long-term impact of climate change)
- Socio-economic impact of disasters (50 million people affected by natural hazards in the EU between 1980 – 2020, worth EUR 487 billion)
- Investing in disaster resilience will also contribute to socioeconomic growth
